

studio

A fictional indoor-plant brand system

Portfolio-safe redesign • original content, logo, palette and icons

Make room for something living.

Verdant is a fictional plant-care studio created to demonstrate brand identity, editorial layout, product storytelling and information hierarchy without reproducing employer assets.

CALM

CARE

Brand introduction

Case notes

that can flex across print, digital and packaging.

Brand direction

Warm, natural, contemporary

Layout system

Strong hierarchy and whitespace

Visual language

Leaves, line icons, earthy accents

About / design rationale

“

A softer way to design for plants.

The visual direction pairs warm editorial typography with structured grids and quiet botanical motifs. The goal is a premium but approachable system

Keep the ritual simple.

Weekly

Rotate toward indirect light.
Monthly
Care system

Check soil before watering.
LIGHT Adjust
Use a gentle plant feed.

WATER
Observe
Daily
■FEED
Repeat

VERDANT

Four fictional products.

MOSS
Desk plant
£24
FICTIONAL PRODUCT
EMBER
Ceramic pot
£32
FICTIONAL PRODUCT

FIELD
Starter kit
£46
FICTIONAL PRODUCT GROVE
Large planter
£74
FICTIONAL PRODUCT
Product architecture

A system, not a single pretty page.

Reusable modules

Original line icons

Product archetypes

Unified voice

The portfolio story is deliberately explicit: the work demonstrates hierarchy, branding, editorial composition, product presentation and reusable visual rules—not the employer's protected execution.

Design system / portfolio framing

A fictional portfolio project.

hello@verdant-studio.example

verdant-studio.example

All brand names, copy, icons and visual assets in this document are fictional.

Contact / disclaimer